Preface

Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ said:
"The best (type) of worship is the study of religion."
[Rayshahrī, Muḥammad, Mīzān al-Ḥikmah, Ḥadīth #2128]

Literature is an influential form of media that often shapes the thoughts and views of an entire generation. Therefore, in order to establish an Islamic foundation for the future generations, there is a dire need for compelling Islamic curriculum and literature. Over the past several years, this need has become increasingly prevalent throughout Islamic centers and schools everywhere. Due to the growing dissonance between parents, children, society, and the teachings of Islam and the Ahlul Bayt ﷺ, this need has become even more pressing. Al-Kisa Foundation, along with its subsidiary, Ṣirāṭ Project, was conceived in an effort to help bridge this gap with the guidance of righteous scholars ('ulamā') and the help of educators. We would like to make this a communal effort and platform. Therefore, we sincerely welcome constructive feedback and help in any capacity.

The goal of the Daily Du'ās for the Month of Ramaḍān pamphlet is to strengthen our personal relationship with Allah ﷻ by reflecting upon a specific du'ā' for each day of the blessed month of Ramaḍān. We hope you will benefit from this work, and use it as a means to strengthen the foundations of your faith and community, inshā'Allāh, in order to achieve this goal.

We pray to Allah ﷻ to give us the strength and Divine ability (tawfīq) to perform our duties and responsibilities, and always turn to Him for all of our needs.

With Du'ās,

Nabi R. Mir (Abidi)

Introduction

In our day-to-day lives, we often feel like our du'ās (supplications) go unheard. We feel like nobody hears us or sees our struggles. But Allah ﷻ hears and sees us. He listens to every single du'ā' we make and answers our supplications in accordance to His Divine wisdom, justice, and knowledge of what is best for us.

During the special month of Ramaḍān, when we are in a state of fasting, we are becoming spiritually closer to Allah ﷻ. With the decrease of worldly distractions, we should be inspired to increase our supplications toward Him. Allow this to be an opportunity to remember that Allah ﷻ is listening and waiting for you to turn to Him. The following words from Imām 'Alī ﷺ speak about the merciful nature of this month and the potential for divine proximity that it holds:

"Verily, the Prophet of Allah addressed us one day, saying: 'O people, verily the month of Allah has come to you with benediction, mercy, and forgiveness—a month that is the best of months in the sight of Allah, whose days are the best of days, whose nights are the best of nights, and whose hours are the best of hours. It is a month wherein you have been invited to the banquet of Allah and have been made worthy of Allah's magnanimity. Your breaths during this month are considered glorification [of Allah], and your sleep worship. Your actions in it are accepted and your supplications are answered…' Upon hearing this, I stood up and asked: 'O Prophet of Allah, what is the best deed to be performed in this month?' He replied: 'O Abul Ḥasan, the best of deeds in this month is to restrain oneself from all that Allah, Mighty and Exalted, has prohibited.'"[1]

Imām 'Alī ﷺ encourages the believers to reflect on the importance of the month and what it means to worship in this sacred month. Let us start this month by praying to Allah ﷻ with the hope that He will answer all of our supplications. Exert yourself to the best of your ability and then ask Allah ﷻ for the strength to become even better. As the 6th Imām ﷺ says in the following narration, this is the month to focus on performing righteous deeds.

Imām Ja'far aṣ-Ṣādiq ﷺ, in his advice to his children heralding the advent of the month of Ramaḍān said: "Exert yourselves [in doing good deeds], for verily in this month, sustenance is apportioned, life spans are destined, the names of Allah's select servants who wish to strive toward Him are recorded down, and in this month is a night wherein the good deeds performed equal the deeds of a thousand months."[2]

This pamphlet contains a du'ā' or supplication for each day of the blessed month of Ramaḍān. There is a place for writing your personal thoughts and reflections after each du'ā'. As you read and reflect over the following supplications, turn to Allah ﷻ, and allow your heart to be overcome with vulnerability and softness.

"Daily Duʿas for the Month of Ramadan" contains a supplication for each day of the sacred month of Ramaḍān. Reflect on a duʿā'-a-day to gain spiritual motivation during the most blessed days of the year. Supplicating is more than words we utter, it creates a beautiful and lasting bond between the supplicant and Allah ﷻ.

Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ said:
"Supplication is the weapon of a believer. It is the pillar of religion, light from the heavens and the Earth. (Thus, I advise you to say supplications and purify your intentions.)"
[ʿUyūn Akhbār ar-Riḍā, Ḥadīth #95]

A believer can utilize supplications as a means to gain mercy in this world and the next. Duʿā' is light that helps us see past the trials we face in this world; and it is the light of the heavens that shines down upon us.

As you recite this compilation of supplications, pray for others, your community, your family, and yourself.

Prophet Muḥammad ﷺ also said: "If a servant was to fathom the worth of (the month of) Ramaḍān, one would wish that (the month of) Ramaḍān lasted the entire year."
[Mīzān al-Ḥikmah, Ḥadīth #3350]

Most importantly, pray for the opportunity to experience countless more months of Ramaḍān to benefit from the mercy and blessings that this sacred month entails.
